XL SCREW CORPORATION IN WHEELING, IL IS EXPANDING!

Ron Sackheim, CEO and Bob Sachs, President, are proud to announce the opening of their new facility in Lincolnshire, IL. What started as a vision over 3 years ago, is now a 100,000 square foot state of the art warehouse facility. Many of XL Screw Corporation's personnel team has been involved in the complete design of the new facility. From the height of the warehouse ceiling to the depth of the concrete floor, their signature is on each detail throughout the office and warehouse.

This new state of the art facility has given XL Screw the capability to expand their product line. New items such as Grade 8 Cap Screws, Socket Products, Anchors, Flange Screws, Concrete Screws and much more have been added. XL Screw Corporation will continue to provide their customers with annual blanket programs, special mill orders and many other value-added services.

Ron, Bob and the entire XL Screw Corporation team are looking forward to this expansion and growth to better serve their customers' fastener needs for now and in the future.

XL Screw Corporation's other locations are located in Austell, GA and Brooklyn Heights, OH, as well as a fully trained staff in Kaohsiung, Taiwan. Please contact your salesperson to learn about the new expanded product line and the many other services XL Screw Corporation has to offer.
